Exciting Opportunity for a Head of Department for Physics

Lead and Inspire Our Science Community

Are you a passionate and ambitious Physics teacher ready to take the next step in your career? We are delighted to offer an exciting opportunity for a talented professional to join our highly successful school as Head of Department for Physics.

Our Science faculty is well-established, collaborative, and committed to delivering engaging, high-quality education to our highly able, motivated students. We are seeking a dynamic leader who will continue to drive excellence, inspire both staff and students, and further develop a forward-thinking Physics curriculum.

The successful candidate will set high standards, demonstrate outstanding professional practice, and embody the collaborative, student-focused ethos of our school. You will be committed to fostering curiosity and a love of learning through an innovative and robust Physics curriculum, bringing enthusiasm, subject expertise, and strong leadership skills to this pivotal role.

You will join a supportive, forward-thinking team of educators who are dedicated to delivering exceptional learning experiences. Our students are enthusiastic, capable, and eager to be challenged, providing an excellent environment in which to teach and lead.

This is a fantastic opportunity to make a significant impact and lead a thriving department into its next phase of development. If you are an enthusiastic and dynamic educator with strong leadership skills, a passion for Physics, and a commitment to excellence, we would love to hear from you.

We reserve the right to appoint prior to interviews.

An application form and further information, including a job description, can be downloaded from our school website www.bostonhighschool.co.uk. If you have any queries or questions after reading the job description, please contact Nadine Swain via email below.
